LODI ACADEMY

2/11/2022

This has been an amazing week at Lodi Academy! Monday was snow day with a group of students going tubing and sledding and another group of students going skiing and snowboarding at Bear Valley. It was so much fun to get out on the snow!

Tuesday was picture day for all students and staff. We have a great looking group here at Lodi Academy! On a person note, I got to wear a tuxedo and a suit at school for two different pictures! I don't always dress up that much, but it was fun.

Wednesday we had 29 visitors spend the afternoon with us for Academy Day. Student Association did an awesome job with the Titan Games for teams that integrated our visitors with our current students. We really appreciated our guests and look forward to a robust freshmen class next school year. We know students have choices and we hope that all of them choose Lodi Academy for high school.

Thursday the 10th grade class went on a field trip to Locke, CA a historic Chinese community on the delta. More on that below.

As we close this week, here are some things to look forward to: Sabbath, February 12 is campus church led by our Campus Ministries team. This launches our student week of prayer next week (February 14-18). The theme is Fruits of the Spirit. Student leaders have been working hard preparing chapel programs. Please pray for our students to have an experience with Jesus this week that will deepen their relationship with Him.

SOPHOMORES VISIT THE CHINESE TOWN OF LOCKE, CA

Mr. Surridge takes his sophomore world literature class to the Chinese town of Locke in the Sacramento River Delta. They learned the history of Chinese immigrant labor in California, including in agriculture and levee construction. They also practiced Chinese calligraphy, simulated building their own town in a strategy game, competed in a scavenger hunt, drank steaming-hot green tea, explored ruins, and shopped at Mr. Clarence Chu's souvenir store. Mr. Chu, a native of Hong Kong, is a board member for the Locke Foundation, and has been welcoming Mr. Surridge's students to the historic town for five years.

Lost in a Corn Maze: A Devotional

By Alissa Kaur

As a kid, I used to look forward to October because of Halloween, and afterwards was Thanksgiving with all the crunchy leaves on the floor, delicious food, and family. My mum was very into keeping up with the holiday traditions so she would go all out for national holidays.

A day before Halloween my family would go to a pumpkin patch and since we lived in the Bay Area she would make us go out to the suburbs where there was actual farms with pumpkins and fun things for us kids to do.

Being the annoying kid that thought everything was a competition, I raced my older brother in the corn maze thinking it was just a wall of corn to hide the rest of the farm that the farmers did not want the people to see. Big mistake. I ran into the corn maze laughing and took multiple turns and when I stopped and took a second to think why a wall of corn would have so many turns I was lost, very, very lost. I started to run frantically and ended up getting more lost and more scared by the second till my older brother heard me yelling and came to me and we found our way through the corn field.

A lot of the times in our lives we also tend to get lost and run deeper into fear but we forget that Jesus could help us in these times of need. As my brother found me and helped me like Jesus, I came to realize that if it weren't for my brother loving me enough to find me I would have been lost and crying and the same way Jesus helped me through the dark scary times that everyone experiences.

Luke 19:10 says, "For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost." Do not let fear and worry take over your life because there's always someone who cares for you even when you don't feel safe.
