LODI ACADEMY

02/19/2024

Lodi Academy students and staff enjoyed a change of pace this weekend as we remembered Presidents' Day with no school on Monday, February 19.

The previous week was a special week at Lodi academy. Students led out in week of prayer. With each class song chapel for the day and each class pastor giving the chapel talk. Friday was led by the campus ministries team and Hannah Willis, student association religious vice-president.

Also last week, on Tuesday night, the Lady Titans varsity basketball team, hosted Forest Lake Christian school in the CIF divisional playoffs. This was a first for Lodi academy women's basketball! Lady Titans won! Congratulations to the Lady Titans and their coaches! Moving on the second round of the playoffs, the Lady Titans visited Sacramento Adventist Academy, but lost. It was a successful season! Great job Lady Titans!

A Glimpse From Last Week's : Student Lead Week of Prayer

During chapel, a number of students from the junior class take the lead in the song service.

Elena Blum, a senior, shared lessons from the life of her favorite Bible character: Martha
