What's New

LODI ACADEMY

01/05/2024

Happy New Year! Wednesday, January 3 Lodi Academy welcomed back students and staff from Christmas break. We hope that everyone enjoyed a change of pace over the holidays! January is a busy month with the start of second semester, basketball season, Freshmore Retreat, and so much more going on!

There are three significant events on the school calendar that are worth mentioning:

January 18, Lodi Academy and Lodi SDA Elementary School are having a joint constituency meeting in the Loewen Chapel at 6:00PM to discuss and vote on approving a new joint Constitution and By-laws for both schools. While this is not a combining of schools, it would create a single school board that manages both schools. Currently each school has its own Constitution and By-laws and its own operating board. While this will not bring any changes to the daily operations of either school, it will be another step toward both schools working more closely together. Delegates from the constituent churches will be voting on these proposals, but the constituency meeting is open for non-delegates to attend and give input.

January 30, Lodi Academy will have a mid-cycle ACS-WASC accreditation visit. ACS-WASC, our accrediting agency, will be on campus to observe and give feedback regarding our growth as a school. This will be a regular day of school at Lodi Academy for students.

January 31, Lodi Academy will be hosting 7th and 8th graders for our annual Academy Day! We look forward to middle school students from Lodi SDA Elementary School, and other schools coming to visit campus and learning about the exciting things Lodi Academy has to offer for high school! For current Lodi Academy students, this will be a school day, with a modified schedule, Please look for details in the next couple of weeks! If you know any 7th or 8th graders that may be interested in Lodi Academy, please share their names and contact information with us! We would love to invite them to this fun event!

Lodi Academy's Mission includes showing students Jesus and nurturing their love for Him. Over the last six months, seven Lodi Academy students have made the decision to follow Jesus and be baptized:

- Aidan Philips (class of 2023)
- Railey Pandjaitan (class of 2023)
- Jasmine Umipeg (class of 2024)
- Izic Shergill (class of 2027)
- Andrew Payne (class of 2025)
- Lauren Payne (class of 2025)
- Madie Johnson (class of 2024)

Each of our students at Lodi Academy are on a journey of spiritual growth. We ask for your prayers for our students each day! We celebrate these baptisms because of the personal decision each student made to follow Jesus!
