LODI ACADEMY

01/27/2023

Friday is here, and another adventurous week at Lodi Academy is coming to an end. The week started on Sabbath with a small group of students leaders and Pastor Manny going to the Galt Church Sabbath morning to lead out in worship. Sunday was the S.A. Banquet, dinner at BJs in Elk Grove. Students got to dress up formally, enjoy dinner with their friends, and cheer on the San Francisco 49ers as the game was playing on the big screen! Well, most of the school were cheering for the 49ers. Mr. Stubbert and a very small handful were rooting for Dallas Cowboys! Almost everyone went home happy!

Monday and Tuesday were regular school days with varsity basketball games in the evenings. Wednesday to Friday, the ladies and guys basketball teams played in the Pacific Union College Tournament.

Special thanks this week goes out to our awesome education team! Each team member has multiple responsibilities and when these responsibilities pull them in different directions at the same time, having a team that is able and willing to step in and help is so critically important. We have teachers willing to help in other classrooms, and excellent substitute teachers- Dave Marson, Hilda Ortiz, and Audie Silber, that make it possible for these events.
