

“If I speak with human eloquence and angelic ecstasy but don’t love, I’m nothing but the creaking of a rusty gate. If I speak God’s Word with power, revealing all his mysteries and making everything plain as day, and if I have faith that says to a mountain ‘jump,’ and it jumps, but I don’t love, I’m nothing. If I give everything I own to the poor and even go to the stake to be burned as a martyr, but I don’t love, I’ve gotten nowhere. So, no matter what I say, what I believe, and what I do, I’m bankrupt without love.”

1 Corinthians 13:1-4, The Message.

Paul, writing to the church in Corinth, reminds us that loving others is most important. How do we as Christians have the capacity to love? Truth is, we all fail at some point to love like this. But 1 John 4:19 says “We love because He first loved us.” The secret to loving like Jesus is not our own hard work or deeper self-awareness, but first experiencing Jesus’ love for us, then wanting to share that love with others.

Lodi Academy’s motto is “The school that trains for service.” We serve out of love for others, sharing what we have experienced already in Jesus- His love!
