This week Dr. Vicki Nelson presented Week of Prayer for Lodi Academy. As a licensed psychologist, and professor at Loma Linda University, she shared about how important it is for Generation Z to have an experience with Jesus that is real, genuine, and authentic. Lodi Academy will finish the week with Campus Ministries vespers tonight.

This Sunday, Lodi Academy is supporting Lodi SDA Elementary School's 78th Annual Pet and Hobby Fall Festival through volunteer efforts. Students have signed up to help in a variety of ways to serve at this event. This is a required school day. Come, enjoy the food, the games, and support our sister school!

Week of Prayer with Dr. Vicki Nelson

Lodi Academy staff and students were blessed to have Dr. Vicki Nelson as our guest speaker for Fall Week of Prayer. Dr. Nelson shared research about Generation Z, which happen to include our students.

Each class was given the opportunity to participate in song service for the week. The chapel was filled with praise to Jesus!

Pastor Meshach, a native of Southern California, now resides in sunny San Diego. His life story is a testament to God's transformative grace, turning his path from destruction to a life dedicated to love and service for God's Kingdom. Of Pacific Islander descent, with roots in Samoa, Pastor Meshach serves as the Board Chair for The Two Percent Ministry, an evangelistic and discipleship platform for Pacific Islander and Indigenous Communities and Churches within the NAD. Despite academic challenges, he earned his bachelor's degree in religious studies from La Sierra University HMS Richards Divinity School and a Masters of Pastoral Ministry from Andrews University Theological Seminary. With over 14 years of pastoral experience, Pastor Meshach has a strong focus on Youth and Young Adult Ministries in the SECC.

He recently served at the San Diego South Bay SDA Church for 4 years before answering the call to the SECC Youth Department, where he currently serves as the Associate Youth Director overseeing club ministries.

Passionate about life and ministry, he's an avid Paddle Boarder who hosts pastors' board meetings weekly at various locations. Pastor Meshach cherishes family life, being a father to his five sons and husband to his high school sweetheart, Linda Soli. Together, the Soli family lives by their motto:

'Magnifying the King, Multiplying the Kingdom, by Making Disciples for Jesus Christ.'
